

McLeod Lake Indian Band
Band Social Worker Assistant

McLeod Lake Indian Band is currently looking to hire a band social worker assistant on a permanent part-time basis to work on-reserve. McLeod Lake Indian Band is a rural community located 150 km north of Prince George. Duties include providing a variety of support services to the McLeod Lake community members residing on reserve.

Qualifications: Diploma in social sciences or equivalent education and experience in mental health and addictions, crisis intervention and grief and loss. Working knowledge of First Nations history and current issues.

Transportation is provided.

Please forward resume and cover letter to Meaghan Van Somer (McLeod Lake Indian Band Health Director) at mvsomer@shaw.ca.

Deadline for applications is Friday, September 29th at 4:00 pm. Only qualified candidates will be contacted for an interview. No phone calls please.