

Good day,

On behalf of UNBC’s Office of Indigenous Initiatives, we have an exciting opportunity for you and your students. Please share with anyone interested in learning more about university life and learning.

UNBC will be delivering a special, online offering of University 101, Introduction to Higher Education (UNIV 101) over the Summer Intersession, available to new and continuing students. The course begins on May 10.

Self-identified Indigenous students receive free applications and there are no tuition costs for this course due to one-time funding provided by the Office of Indigenous Initiatives. See the "Costs" section below for a full breakdown.

Course Details:

Days with Classes:	Mondays and Wednesdays
Class Time:	6:30 PM – 7:20 PM*
Delivery Method:	Online, synchronous
Course start date:	Monday, May 10, 2021
Course end date:	Friday, August 20, 2021
Instructor:	Jessie King

required readings and assignments to be completed in addition to class time listed.*

Application and Registration Process:

Interested Students must contact Shannon MacKay to be guided through the application and registration process:

Shannon MacKay
Indigenous Student Recruiter
Shannon.mackay@unbc.ca
778-675-6679

Application Deadline: Thursday, April 29, 2021

Registration Deadline: Friday, May 7, 2021

UNIV 101 Description:

This course is most appropriate for students who are new to or exploring postsecondary education. It offers an introduction to the university as an institution of higher learning, an explanation of the various methods of inquiry employed therein, and demonstrations of the study skills and learning strategies that are required for academic success.

Costs:

Application fee:	Waived for self-identified Indigenous Peoples in Canada.
Tuition fees:	Funded by UNBC Office of Indigenous Initiatives for Indigenous Peoples in Canada.
Textbook fees:	No charge to students
Student fees:	Charged to and paid by each student: $25

Shannon MacKay (she/them)

Indigenous Student Recruiter | Student Recruitment & Advising Centre
University of Northern British Columbia | Prince George, B.C., Canada

I respectfully acknowledge that the land on which I live and work is the traditional and unceded territory of the Lheidli T'enneh Nation

Lheidli means "where the two rivers flow together" and T'enneh means "the People"

Text: 778-675-6679

Email: shannon.mackay@unbc.ca | Web: <https://unbc4u.unbc.ca>

