

Are you interested in moving home?

MLIB is constructing 2 triplexes on IR1, due for completion by the end of the year. Move in dates will be starting in late October.

Both buildings will have wheel chair accessibility unit in both buildings.

If you are interested in applying to move home, please apply by filling out the attached Housing Application with contact information, number of bedrooms preferred, and your application will go through a housing committee selection process.

Any questions or concerns please contact:
