

National Addiction Awareness Week

McLeod Lake Indian Band will be celebrating November 18-21, 2019 this year. We have several workshops planned, information sessions, community lunches daily and activities that are geared towards addictions. Please join us for this informative and valuable week of activities.

Monday Nov. 18 and Tuesday Nov. 19, 2019 9am-3 pm

We are pleased to welcome the Tsow Tun Le Lum Traditional Healers to McLeod Lake for two (2) full days of Grief and Loss Workshops. They will also be offering Traditional Cedar Brushing sessions for interested community members.

Wednesday Nov. 20 2019 10am-2 pm

Please join us for workshops and activities that will be focusing on Addictions. Activities will be held in the gym, at the band office. Hosts will be Phyllis Maher- Addictions Counsellor and Joyce Forsythe- Adult Counsellor and Nurse.

Thursday Nov. 21, 2019 10am-2 pm

We will wrap up the week with an open community smudge and talking circle. We will also be honoring community members that are currently in recovery and working hard to improve their lives.

All activities are open to everyone and we will be providing lunch daily, door prizes, and fun!
