

Hello MLIB Members,

It is with heavy hearts that we come together as a community to mourn the loss of an MLIB member, Charles Chingee. This tragic event has deeply affected us all. Our thoughts and condolences go out to the family and everyone who has been affected by this tragedy.

In the wake of this sorrow, we want to remind members of the importance of seeking help and reaching out to one another. Our nation offers a range of mental health services, suicide prevention hotlines, and support networks to help and comfort. If you or someone you know is struggling with mental health, please remember that help is available 24/7.
