Part-Time Annual Contractor
Supplemental Kennedy Siding Caribou Feeding Program

McLeod Lake Indian Band (MLIB) has been working in partnership since 2014 with Tithonus Wildlife Research and the outside funding agencies to provide a supplemental feeding program to the Kennedy Siding Caribou. We would like to continue this important research. To provide these services, we are seeking a contractor who is hard working, loves the land and its animals, committed to this important project and will carry out the tasks in a timely and efficient manner.

This is a wonderful opportunity for a Band member. Please call Tania if you have any questions (250) 750-6861.

Contractor Responsibilities:
Accomplishes objectives by managing and planning their tasks accordingly. The contractor will report directly to the Doug Heard, Tithonus Wildlife Research and Mateen Hessami, caribou biologist.

Contractor Duties:
The contractor will provide the Nation with the following services from approximately November 1st to January 15th:

- Assist Doug Heard and Mateen Hessami with the research portion of the Kennedy Siding Caribou Supplemental Feeding Program, along with feeding the caribou

Contractor Skills, Qualifications and Requirements:
The contractor will have wide knowledge including:

- be willing to learn and be taught research skills
- lift up to 50 pound feed bags daily or every second day
- will require frequent travel between McLeod Lake and Kennedy Siding successful
- candidate will be expected to commute and work in winter conditions position will
- take direction from the Doug Heard and Mateen Hessami and report directly to them

Interested qualified contractors should forward a resume to:

Human Resources Manager
McLeod Lake Indian Band
General Delivery, McLeod Lake, BC V0J 2G0
E-Mail: hrdept@mlib.ca
Closing Date: 4:00 p.m. October 23rd, 2026

Note: No Phone Calls Please. Only those short-listed will be contacted.