¹ Electors are hereby informed that this end date for the Nomination Period does not strictly comply with the Election Code. According to the Code, the Nomination Period closes on “the thirty-sixth day before the Voting Day”. However, this date is after the Notice of Election must be issued which must contain the names of the Candidates and after ballots must be mailed out, which are “42 days before the Voting Day”. As neither of these would be possible before the conclusion of the prescribed Nomination Period, I have taken the decision to close the Nomination Period at the close of the Nomination Meeting.
